ROCKLAND

Pie lovers have tour at some historic inns

The Historic Inns of Rockland will celebrate National Pie Day Jan. 22 with the second annual Pies on Parade Inn-to-Inn Pie Tour.

This historic inn tour is an opportunity to sample sweet and savory pies from Rockland's historic country inns, while gathering tips on pie making from expert pie makers and innkeepers.

On the weekend before the events, some of the inns on the tour will be offering their guests such items as egg pie for breakfast or pie a la mode as a breakfast dessert.

Participating inns include Berry Manor Inn, Captain Lindsey House, LimeRock Inn, Lakeshore Inn and Waterman House and Gardens.

Price for the tour alone will be $10 a person, available after Jan. 1. Packages including a stay at one of the inns and the tour are $115 to 190 per couple.
