

Glenn's Ten . . . The Way I See It!

By Glenn Arnette III

Rockland, Maine brings out the best in people. From the Historic Inns of Rockland to the excitement of being in the Lobster Capital of the World, this is a paradise! You can enjoy the best in adventure and entertainment. This is a town where historic inns, as it puts you in the mood for a Maine experience. It is a sailing with vistas as seen on those picture post cards you can purchase in the local shops. Bob Pratt is a native of Maine and as a marine biologist has taught at the University of Maine and Maine Maritime Academy. He enjoys discussing the marine life of Penobscot Bay with his passengers. For

"Captain Jack" is a 30-foot authentic downeast lobster boat. This is hands on and you will know everything you need to know about lobsters. You pull the cages, measure the lobster and learn the history and enjoy some of the most breathtaking views of the area. What a family experience! You can email him at: stevehale1@verizon.net or call 207-542-6852.

You should also take a nice 15 minute trip to the Owls Head Transportation Museum at Owls Head, Maine. It is just down the road and you will not believe what you will find. This is the home to the landmark collection of antique aircraft, automobiles, motor cycles, carriages, bicycles and engines, complimented by special transportation antique auto and aero plane shows that provide an experience the whole family can enjoy. This is a fabulous collection of history. Check their website at www.owlshead.org, or call for a brochure at 207-594-4418.

Later that day I was taken

The coastline of Maine is breathtaking from land hospitality rules the day. Rockland is home to more windjammers than any other port in the United States. It is considered to have one of the most beautiful scenic bodies of water on the eastern seaboard, a perfect place to live.

Thanks to Marti Mayne of Maynely Marketing 207-846-6331, I was invited into a world of adventures more exciting than Disney or Universal Studios. This is for real, hands on and feeling good.

One morning I was asked to come aboard the "Morning in Maine," a custom-built 55-foot wooden ketch captained by Bob Pratt. This is the first thing I would recommend after staying in one of the his-more information and for special parties and events contact him at 207-691-7245 or visit his website at www.amorningmaine.com.

By-the-way ask Bob about his starring role in an upcoming Hollywood movie!

For another and completely different adventure you must cross the dock and board Captain Jack's boat for a lobster cruise. Now Captain Jack is really Steve Hale. The to dinner at the Craginair Inn at Clark Island, Spruce Head, Maine just ten miles from Rockland. "Picture yourself on the edge of the world in a place where serenity is your companion, simplicity the setting and your closest neighbor is breathtaking natural beauty." The dining room looks out on a glorious ocean view. The cuisine is heavenly and everything is especially prepared to make your evening a "tasty" one from the best in local seafood and freshest meats to the homemade sauces, breads, pastas and pastries. For information call 800-320-9997 and check out their website at www.craginair.com.

The 55-foot ketch, 'Morning In Maine,' docked in Rockland, Maine.

Glenn Arnette, III

Glenn resides in Flagler Beach, Florida and travels all over the world collecting stories. He recently returned from a three month tour of Europe traveling through Greece, the Greek Isles, Turkey, Spain, England and then down the Rhine and Danube Rivers. Formerly from Myrtle Beach, he seeks to find the best in travel opportunities for the dollar. You can email him at VGArnette3@aol.com and visit his international website at www.travelstorymagazine.com

Steve Hale tending to a trap on the lobster boat.

Finally for today, there is just one thing left to tell you about and that is the delicious Rock City Coffees. Now when in Maine and the weather is cool, there is nothing better than a full body blend of real coffee, right out of the roaster. The coffee beans come from all over the world and the are always fresh. As a member of the Specialty Coffee

Association of America, you will always remember the freshness and aroma as it pours into your cup. To order perfect coffee in all flavors including many decafs, go to their website www.rockcitycoffee.com. Order, order, order and they will ship anywhere in the world. They will even mix your personal blend so you can impress your friends. Call 877-280-5688 and ask for Roastmaster Patrick Reilly.

That is about it for this reading. I hope you are thinking about taking a trip to Rockland, Maine. It really is a wonderful place with lots to do. It is such an American adventure.

Until next time, be sure to keep up with our stories at www.travelstorymagazine.com or email me at VGArnette3@aol.com.

Rustic and American - that's Maine.

The star of Maine!